“Injustice” from 7/5/2020
Proverbs 24:1-12

SPOILER ALERT: You may not want to read these until AFTER you have heard the sermon.

1. Share about a time when someone you know was impacted by injustice. How did they respond in the moment? In hindsight, what might have been a better way to respond?
2. Why do you think that God hasn't done more to overcome injustice in our world? Does the injustice in our world ever make you wonder what God is up to? Ever make you doubt God?
3. Read Proverbs 3:27. How can we overcome the temptation to avoid taking responsibility for injustice? If we become aware of an injustice, how can we determine what our personal responsibility may be in addressing it?
4. What good books or articles have you read on injustice lately? Brainstorm some good resources for further study on the topic of injustice.
5. Proverbs 24:12 ends by asking, “Will he not repay everyone according to what they have done?” Regarding injustice, how might this verse be sobering? How might it be encouraging?
6. How can we encourage one another to stand against injustice in our world? What are some practical ways that we could respond to injustice even this week?
