Sermon-based Discussion Questions

1. What are some things that you've heard about heaven from sources other than the Bible? How much do you think we should believe from these various songs, books, and personal accounts?
2. Read Revelation 21:3-4. What do you think it might be like when God dwells among us?
3. In Revelation 21:5 God says, "I am making everything new!" What new things might you be looking forward to in eternity?
4. Revelation 21:12-14 reveals that God's people from the Old and New Testaments have a shared future. Who are some of the friends and family you're most looking forward to seeing in heaven? Who is someone you may be looking forward to meeting for the first time?
5. Revelation 22:3-5 seems to indicate that there will be things for us to do in heaven. Do you have any guesses what these things might be?
6. What are some things in Revelation 22:6-21 that show us that Jesus wants us to be in heaven?
